

Foreword by Ben Tannett

Sometimes when we read the Bible we fail to see the wood for the trees. In the detailed history, theology and other styles of Biblical writing we can fail to discern a unified theme, a direction in which it is all heading. Taking advantage of time to study since moving to Swinton, my wife Julie has brought together in this overview teaching which she first heard at the FIEC Pwllheli week in 2004, and at St Ebbe's Oxford under the ministry of Vaughan Roberts. Julie was very concerned that I read this through before anyone used it, and in the process of doing that I have found it to be very beneficial and I am confident that you will also.
